

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE ELECTION.

IT may not perhaps be altogether uninteresting to place on record a few particulars connected with the remarkable Election of 1834-5, which terminated in the return of two Conservative Members for the Eastern Division of this County.

The Hon. Major Keppel and William Howe Windham, Esq. were the sitting Members at the period when the first Reformed Parliament was dissolved, Dec. 29th, 1834. The general feeling that the assumption of the Premiership by Sir Robert Peel, upon the dismissal of the Whig Administration of Lord Melbourne, must lead to an appeal by the King to his people, caused, in all parts of the Kingdom, preparations to be made for such an event.

On Saturday, the 22d of Nov. Major Keppel paid his personal respects to many of his constituents in the Corn Exchange. Soon afterwards, however, the Hon. and gallant Officer gave up his canvass, in consequence, it is understood, of dissatisfaction with certain points of his parliamentary conduct having been intimated to him by individuals, who on the former occasion were his warmest political supporters. Mr. Windham took those steps natural to one desirous of renewing his position in the public service.—On Tuesday, Dec. 2d, a meeting of many of the leading and influential County Gentlemen in the Conservative interest assembled in Norwich, at the residence of S. Bignold, Esq. when it was unanimously resolved to offer their support to Lord Walpole and Mr. E. Wodehouse. A requisition, numerously signed, was immediately accepted by the latter gentleman, and a conditional acceptance was also given by the Earl of Orford, on behalf of his son Lord Walpole, who was at the time on the Continent. The announcement of Major Keppel's intentions, in case a Dissolution of Parliament did take place, was published in the following Address, which appeared in the Norwich Papers of Dec. 13 :—

TO THE ELECTORS OF EAST NORFOLK.

GENTLEMEN—It has been intimated to me, that, if I were again to offer myself for the honour of representing you in Parliament, I might be the means of disturbing that unanimity which, at a moment like the present, it is so highly desirable should exist amongst the advocates of liberal principles of all denominations.

No personal considerations have ever influenced my political conduct, nor shall they now. I beg therefore to announce to you that, in the event of a Dissolution, I am ready to resign my pretensions to the honor of your suffrages, in behalf of any Candidate upon whom the choice of the Reformers of East Norfolk may fall.

With a grateful sense of the high honor you conferred upon me in electing me your Representative, and with the proud consciousness of having honestly and fearlessly discharged the duties of that sacred trust,

I am, Gentlemen,

Your most faithful Friend and Servant,

Brighton, Dec. 2, 1834.

GEORGE KEPPEL.

Mr. Windham now stood without a colleague, and various rumours were afloat as to the gentlemen to whom overtures had been made by the Whig party, whilst accounts were at the same time very current as to a compromise having been proposed and accepted, and that the name of Lord Walpole was to be withdrawn.

On the 13th Dec. a joint address was issued by Mr. Windham and Mr. Gurney; and Mr. Gurney also on that day, in the Corn Exchange, publicly announced himself as the colleague of Mr. Windham, and declared his determination to abide the contest. On the 3rd of Jan. Mr. Spencer H. Walpole arrived as the representative of his noble relation.

That a compromise had been attempted was generally known, although of course its progress and the terms, upon which it was to be made, were not matters of public notoriety.—The subjoined letter, which subsequently appeared in the Norfolk Chronicle, may be taken as a true statement of the case as regards the negotiations; acquainted as we are with the writer's name; knowing that he must have been cognisant of all the circumstances; and feeling assured that he was incapable of misrepresenting them:—

To the Editor of the Norfolk Chronicle.

Sir—Your Paper of the 27th December contains the report of a Speech stated to have been made by Mr. Richard Gurney, in the Corn Exchange, on the preceding Saturday, of which the following is an extract:—

“I am ready to avow that last week I made a communication through Mr. Kett to some gentlemen of the other party, for the purpose of securing the return of Mr. Windham and Mr. Wodehouse without disturbing the peace of the county by a contested Election.—In that negotiation I acted as a private individual, and solely upon my own responsibility; I said I will pledge myself not to come forward for the Eastern Division, if the other party will withdraw Lord Walpole.—This proposition was made on the Thursday—on the Saturday the gentlemen met, and the proposition was laid before them, but no reply was given.”

The latter part of this statement is totally unfounded. Not only an answer, acceding to that proposition was given; but a proposal was sent through Mr. Kett of a written pledge to be signed by the most influential persons of both parties, that upon withdrawing Lord Walpole, no other Candidate should be brought forward on either side; and to this written proposal, a verbal alteration was made at the suggestion of Mr. Gurney himself—the reply brought by Mr. Kett was, that Mr. Gurney had had no communication with his party, and would only answer for himself.

Whatever importance Mr. Gurney may attach to the various sources of influence which he possesses in this county; it is quite clear that a Committee from the most influential persons of the Conservative body, pledging themselves to the fulfilment of an agreement offered to, and accepted by their party, in the hope of preserving the peace of the county, had a right to expect something more than the promise of Mr. Gurney not to offer himself as a Candidate; and in this view could only be justified to their constituents, by demanding a pledge from the influential persons of the opposite party, that on their side also, the agreement should be honestly fulfilled, not only as related to Mr. Gurney, but including any other gentleman,—and they were the more called upon so to act, as at that moment a requisition was in the course of signature, calling upon another gentleman to come forward as a Candidate, in consequence of Mr. Gurney's well-known disinclination to offer himself.

What would have been the situation of the Conservative party, if after withdrawing Lord Walpole, an avowed Candidate, for the honour of representing his native county in Parliament, some other gentleman had been immediately substituted for the retiring Mr. Gurney, as the colleague of Mr. Windham, and the opponent of Mr. E. Wodehouse?

It is not my object to reply to Mr. Gurney's speech, but simply to correct an erroneous statement, tending to throw on the Conservative party, the blame of having rejected a Compromise to which in truth and sincerity they had acceded.

Your obedient Servant,

ONE OF THE CONSERVATIVE COMMITTEE.

The writs for electing a new Parliament were received by the post of Wednesday, 31st Dec. and Saturday, Jan. 17th, 1835, was appointed for the Nomination Day of the Candidates for the Eastern Division. The High Sheriff of the County (ROBT. MARSHAM, Esq.) having opened the business, WILLIAM HOWE WINDHAM, Esq. was proposed by W. E. L. Bulwer, Esq. and Sir Wm. Beauchamp Proctor, Bart.; Lord WALPOLE was nominated by Henry Negus Burroughes, Esq. and J. Pctre, Esq.; the Hon.

Wm. Rous and Sir Hanson Berney, Bart. proposed EDMOND WODEHOUSE, Esq.; and Edw. Lombe, Esq. and the Hon. Edw. Vernon Harbord nominated RICHARD HANBURY GURNEY, Esq —Each of the Candidates, and Mr. Spencer Walpole, on the part of Lord Walpole, addressed the Electors; a shew of hands was called for by the High Sheriff, and being declared in favour of Mr. Windham and Mr. Gurney, a poll was demanded for Lord Walpole and Mr. E. Wodehouse.

On the following Tuesday, the polling commenced at the appointed places. The High Sheriff presided at Norwich, assisted by his Under Sheriff, Wm. Foster, Esq.; Adam Taylor, Esq. attended as the High Sheriff's deputy at Long Stratton; Jonathan Townley, jun. Esq. at Yarmouth; Geo. Elward Simpson, Esq. at Reepham; and Adam Taylor, jun. Esq. at North Walsham.

The following was announced by the Walpole and Wodehouse Committee as the result of the first day's poll :—

Walpole	-	2612		Windham	-	2571
Wodehouse	-	2785		Gurney	-	2459

These numbers in favour of the Conservative Candidates were still further increased at the final close of the poll at four o'clock the second day (Wednesday) according to the Reform Act.

About twelve o'clock on Friday, Jan. 23d, the High Sheriff came into the Crown Court, and having announced the numbers to be—for

Lord Walpole	- - -	3188
Edmond Wodehouse, Esq.	- -	3474
William Howe Windham, Esq.		3069
Richard Hanbury Gurney, Esq.		2879

declared Horatio William Walpole, Esq. commonly called Lord Walpole, and Edmond Wodehouse, Esq. to be duly elected as Knights to serve in Parliament for the Eastern Division of the County of Norfolk.—Mr. Spencer Walpole and Mr. Wodehouse severally addressed the Electors. The Chaining took place the same day, and was upon the most splendid scale; and in the evening the Ball in honour of the newly-elected Members, presented a most brilliant assemblage of the rank and fashion of the county, the number of ladies and gentlemen amounting to upwards of 400.

The return of Lord Walpole forms an almost unprecedented instance of a Candidate for the representation of a large county, being so successfully supported without having once been able to present himself to the Constituency. In his relative, Mr. Spencer Walpole, however, the Noble Lord had a most courteous proxy and highly-talented interpreter of his political opinions.

The following are the numbers polled at each Division :—

	Wa.	Wo.	Wi.	G.
Norwich - -	861	1000	935	854
Reepham - -	334	345	331	310
